NOTICE

The students are informed that just after completion of their last internal online examination in the semester they have to attend the remedial classes (separate routine will be given in the respective students' group by the department) being physically present at the college. University had ordered examinations to be conducted in on-line mode but classes are to be conducted in off-line mode.

Semesterwise such remedial classes will continue upto the last date of form fill up for University examination for that semester or upto 30th June, 2022 whichever is earlier. Attendance will be counted upto that date. This time University have issued no order to give full marks (5 out of 5) in attendance, and if your attendance is low your result may show you have failed in the semester. Study leave for the semester will be given after the last date of form fill up of that semester.

If the University examinations are delayed upto August 2022 (like in 2021 for semester II and IV only) normal routine wise full classes will start from 1st July, 2022.
