Please note that the faculties will address your queries, if any, as quickly as possible, and you are urged to keep yourself updated with various subject combinations you need to opt. Please have patience in getting response from your teachers and refrain from sending voice message or making unnecessary calls repeatedly. The details of the syllabus and other necessary information will be available in the groups. We will conduct orientation programme, if needed. Your active cooperation will help us to address your queries more effectively.

(Dr Sukanta Das)
